

Leander Public Artists' Larger Than Life

13 January 2011 thru 13 April 2012

Leander Public Artists' Larger than Life

The Leander Public Arts Commission (LPAC) is proud to display several illustrative works of Art. These pieces represent the Artists' process. Over thirty illustrations and photographs are included.

The Art is displayed in three public locations:

- Adams (Blue) House - 100 N. Brushy
- City Hall - 200 W. Willis
- Pat Bryson Hall - 200 N. Brushy

Art can be viewed Monday through Friday, except holidays, in all of the locations.

Yuri Hayano – Illustration @ Blue House

weirdyuri@yahoo.co.jp
(512) 694-4392

Nature and movies inspire Yuri's drawing, photography and sculpture. She thinks weird things are beautiful. Past exhibits include:

- 2005 Design Festa Tokyo Japan (Illustration, Sculpture)
- Lily Lights Tokyo Japan (Live painting, wall painting)
- 2010 Group Exhibition Duned in New Zealand (Illustration)

Titles include:

- Bee Hive – price n/a
- Cloud Fairy - price n/a
- Killer Ice Cream - price n/a
- No title 1 - price n/a
- No title 2 - price n/a
- Rainbow - price n/a

John Jagger – Illustration Plans for Sculpture @ Pat Bryson Hall

jagger3@aol.com
(512) 778-6696

John Jagger has been a professional sculptor since 1961. He worked as a Senior Industrial Designer for IBM, and studied Charles Eames and Harry Bertoia's use of wire and metal rod as an Art Medium.

His last four-year contracts involved twelve large-scale works for Sculpterra Winery in Paso Robles, California. He and his wife moved to Austin, Texas in 2007. He is currently looking for investors in a new Sculpture Garden; and a museum for his past Sculptural achievements.

John has worked with Cities, Churches, Casinos, Corporations, Wineries, Hospitals, Hotels, Banks and office developers; with thousands of collectors vying for his smaller works. Titles include:

- Fording The Stream - $250
- Mountain Lion - $250
- Mammoth - $250
- Charger - $250

Leander Public Artists' Larger Than Life

13 January 2012 thru 13 April 2012

- Making Camp - $250
- Texas Free Range Chicken - $250
- Patriot - $250
- The Reach - $250
- Coat of Many Color - $250

Kathleen McElwaine – Illustrations @ City Hall

www.kimcelwaine.com/
kmcelwaine@ymail.com
(512) 653-2540

Kathleen grew up on a small quarter horse ranch in Tulsa, OK with a full-fledged cowboy Dad. "Much of my childhood was spent sketch-book in hand, in the front seat of a '54 Chevy pickup truck. Through the windshield I developed a love for art and animals."

Titles include:

- Pet illustration
- Cow illustrations

Wes Odell – Photographs@ City Hall and Blue House

wesodell@gmail.com
(512) 863-8283

Wes Odell is a prolific

competitor and exhibitor with a multitude of award winning photographs from State and County Fairs, to the Photographic Society of America, to the Sun City Club and the Williamson County Art Guild. He has belonged to six such organizations, five in Texas. His one-person exhibit at the Georgetown Public Library just finished a two-month run. He enjoys teaching, particular to beginners, and was the Vice President of Education for two years at Sun City. The Photography Boot Camp is his signature event, having taught in various places six times.

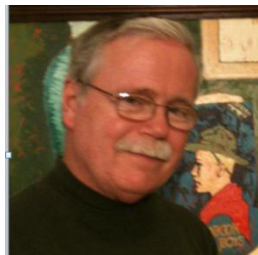

He has been a life-long photographer, having his own darkroom at age 12, and making pictures while living all over the west. His preference is for Black & White images, but likes to experiment with artistic effects.

Titles Include:

- Three Professional Bicycle Races - $100
- Bluebonnets and Cactus - $100
- Cowboy Calf - $100
- HandsHands and Tools of the Trade - $100
- Yashica Twin Lens Reflex - $100

Gil Russell Illustration @ Blue House

gilkathyrussell@gmail.com
(512) 516-1441

Gil is honored to serve as the lead instructor at Cordovan Art School,

Leander Public Artists' Larger Than Life

13 January 2012 thru 13 April 2012

Round Rock TX. Gil was a Designer and Art Director with Zee Toys, Tomy Corporation and Tonka Toys. Three items that Gil designed were awarded patents, and Gil has successfully licensed products of his own.

In 1996, Gil returned to fine arts, and became an instructor at Brown College, Minneapolis MN. In 2004, Gil and his wife moved to Kazan, Tatarstan in the Russian Federation and established an art program at an orphanage.

Titles Include:

- Blue Vibrations - $200
- Improv in Pain - $200
- Hats Off - $80

John Wilbur Illustration @ City Hall

Unorthodoxillustration@gmail.com
www.unorthodoxillustrations.com
(512) 656-8856

John is an illustrator and a graphic designer who primarily uses hand drawn illustrations in his works. He is the proud owner of Unorthodox Illustrations which he founded in November 2011. He lives in Leander TX with his wife Michelle and son Liam.

Titles Include:

- Fish Reality Cycle - price n/a
- Wasted Ambitions - price n/a
- Hunter's Eye - price n/a
- Lunch Discussion - price n/a

SPECIAL THANKS to

Two Saints Baking Co. & Café

106 West Willis Street
Leander TX 78641
(512) 799-0939

<http://tinyurl.com/twosaints>

H-E-B Plus

651 North US Highway 183
Leander TX 78641
(512) 528-7700

<http://tinyurl.com/hebleander>

Leander Public Arts Committee

- Ms. Carmen Amaya
carmen.amaya@g.austincc.edu
- Mr. Stan Holcomb
stanholcomb@gmail.com
- Mr. Ed Kelley
ed@edkelleyphotography.com
- Ms. Sherry LeBlanc
sherryleblanc13@hotmail.com
- Mr. Dustin Laycock
dustin.laycock@gmail.com
- Mr. David Siebold
Place6@leandertx.gov
- Ms. Mary Hengstebeck
mhengstebecktexas@gmail.com

Leander City Staff

- Kirk D. Clennan, CECd
Kirk@leandertx.gov
- Debbie Haile, City Secretary
Debbie@leandertx.gov